Disclosure regarding conflict of interest – investment banking services

These disclosures have been issued pursuant to the requirements set out in the Securities Trading Regulations clause 3-11 (1) (d) and (f) (pursuant to the Securities Trading Act clause 3-10).

Clarksons Securities AS aims always to operate in compliance with appropriate business standards, including with respect to conflicts of interests and the content of reports produced by investment firms and other relevant standards. To limit possible conflicts of interests, the analysts within Clarkson Securities AS' research department are separated from the corporate finance department in order to control the flow of information ("Chinese walls") and are subject to internal rules on the handling of inside and other confidential information, unpublished research material and contact with other departments.

The object of the internal rules is to ensure that no analyst will abuse or cause others to abuse confidential information. The analyst(s) involved in the preparation of Clarkson Securities AS research have not at the same time been involved in corporate assignments for companies described by him or her.

The analysts have not been, nor are or will be, receiving direct or indirect compensation in exchange for expressing any of the views or the specific recommendations contained in any reports. The analysts of Clarkson Securities AS' research department are eligible to remuneration from Clarkson Securities AS' general bonus scheme.
